WRAPPING

PPF

“SELF HEALING”

Is one of the most advanced films on the market worldwide. Popular not only for its incredible protection technology but it's gloss level, self healing abilities and hydrophobicity.

Due the thickness of PPF, wrapping and edge isn't always possible. Thus, it is industry standard to come in from an edge by roughly 3mm. To avoid cutting on the vehicle paint work, a precut template is used, and lined up evenly within a panel. Templates take into consideration the vehicles' curves and also the application process. As the PPF is optically clear, the edges are almost invisible.
